The following Press Communique dated 28th October 1920, issued by the Government of India in the Department of Commerce is hereby republished for general information:—

In a Press Communique dated the 20th May 1920, the Government of India announced the procedure to be followed by persons having claims for reparation against Germany and her allies in the late war, and it was intimated that such claims should be submitted to Local Governments and Administrations not later than the 30th June. It has now been brought to the notice of the Government of India that there is a considerable number of persons who, from ignorance either of the procedure to be adopted or of the circumstances in which reparation can be claimed, have not yet submitted their claims. For the benefit, therefore, of such persons the classes of damage for which reparation can be claimed, and the decisions of the London Reparation Committee in connection with such claims are indicated below:—

A. Reparation may be claimed in respect of damages falling under the following categories:—

(1) Damage to injured persons and to surviving dependents by personal injury to or death of civilians caused by acts of war, including bombardments or other attacks on land, on sea, or from the air and all the direct conseqences thereof, and of all the operations of war by the two groups of belligerents wherever arising.

(2) Damage caused by Germany or her allies to civilian victims of acts of cruelty, violence or maltreatment (including injuries to life or health as a consequence of imprisonment, deportation, internment or evacuation), of exposure at sea or of being forced to labour, wherever arising, and to the surviving dependents of such victims.
